Weather & Seasons

Beginner Level

Introductory Reading

Weather and seasons are part of our daily lives. Every day, we look outside to check the weather. Some of us check apps on our phones to check the temperature and see if it is sunny, rainy, cloudy, or snowy.

The weather can change our plans. Often, we have to change our clothes, The weather can also change how we feel. In Canada, there are four seasons: spring, summer, fall, and winter. Each season has different weather. Summer is usually hot, and winter is very cold. Spring and fall are usually cool.

Learning simple weather words helps us talk about our day. We can have conversations with our family, friends and fellow-workers.
